

VERB SYNOPSIS PRACTICE

A synopsis is a summary outline of a given verb that shows at a glance the major inflectional variations of that verb. Choose a verb, person and number (for instance, video, second person singular) and list all the forms of the verb—active and passive, indicative and subjunctive—in the specified person and number. Over the next few weeks, we'll add new forms to the synopsis (participles and infinitives).

Verb: _____

Person: _____

Number: _____

INDICATIVE:

Active

Passive

PRES.

IMP.

FUT.

PERF.

PLUPERF.

FUTPERF.

SUBJUNCTIVE:

PRES.

IMPERF.

PERF.

PLUPERF.
