

Hear and Say WorldWide

Training in Listening and Spoken Language Specialities in Auditory Verbal Therapy and Auditory-Verbal Education

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

This course provides practical skills in Auditory-Verbal Therapy and Auditory-Verbal Education. Completion of elementary course or proof of adequate learning required for the intermediate course. This course can serve as a pre-requisite for the advanced course.

This course is best suited for:

- Professionals who require in-depth knowledge of Auditory-Verbal Therapy and current hearing technology
- Clinical and education professionals with existing qualifications (i.e., Audiologists, Speech Pathologists, Teacher of the Deaf, Teacher)

Course Content:

- The development of speech and language skills
- Assessment of children with hearing loss
- Speech acoustics and teaching audition
- Working with parents and infants
- Inclusive education support and liaison
- Cochlear Implants: advanced technology, speech processing
- Candidacy for Cochlear implants, mapping and troubleshooting
- Implications for the management of otitis media and otitis externa

Interactive Content:

- Goal setting- practical workshop with child and parent speakers
- Mapping and troubleshooting with practical elements
- Demonstrations and supervised practical teaching, practical examples and video critique exercises

Duration

Offered on-line (40 hours) or in-person 5 day intensive

Cost

$1,500/course

Next available course

Next in-person intensive course is September 27th- Friday October 1st 2010

Register online at www.hearandsaycentre.com.au

Contact us

Phone

T: + 61 7 3870 2221

F: + 61 7 3870 3998

Online

W: www.hearandsaycentre.com.au

E: mail@hearandsaycentre.com.au

Postal Address

PO Box 930

Toowong Qld 4066 AEST

Street Address

40-44 Munro Street

Auchenflower Qld
4066

Hours of Operation

Monday to Friday, 8:30am - 5:00pm

AEST