

Maimonides' Spring Equinox date in or before Nisan (every 19th year connected)

Based on his "True Solar Longitude" method, using binary search for solar longitude = zero degrees

Rambam's "true solar longitude" method closely reproduces the past and future drift of the Hebrew calendar for the next five millennia, but not the accelerating astronomical drift that will occur after Hebrew year 10500.