RECENT EMPLOYMENT AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

7/14 – 3/16 Research Assistant: SSHRC Partnership Development Grant, University of Toronto, Toronto
Research member of the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council funded project “Migrants, Refugees and the International State System.” Organized through a seven-institution consortium spanning Europe, North America and Asia, the project examined the causes of forced migration, statelessness, early warning systems, regional cooperation, and durable solutions. Responsibilities include collaborative research on statelessness and coordinating between research partners at the University of Toronto and Oxford University.

6/15 – 9/15 Research Intern: International Organization for Migration, Geneva, Switzerland
Researcher for the Migrants in Countries in Crisis (MICIC) Secretariat based at the International Organization for Migration, which aims to improve the ability of States and other stakeholders to respond to and protect the dignity and rights of migrants caught in countries in situations of acute crisis. Responsibilities included conducting desk research and drafting policy briefs as part of supporting the Initiative’s goal to produce a set of voluntary guidelines, principles and best practices. Additional responsibilities included facilitating stakeholder consultations, as well as serving as rapporteur for the 2015 IOM/NGO consultations.

9/08 – 7/14 Research Assistant: University of Toronto, Toronto
Assisting with various research projects under the respective direction of Dr. Randall Hansen, Dr. Ryan Balot, Dr. Jennifer Nedelsky, and Dr. Nancy Bertoldi. The focus of such projects ranged from forced migration, the role of courage in the democratic politics of classical Athens, theories of judgment, and contemporary international political theory. Responsibilities have included research-intensive work such as literature reviews, archival research, and article and manuscript editing.

10/13 – 8/14 Lead Researcher, Massey Lectures: Massey College, Toronto
Researcher to the Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson, former Governor General of Canada, for the 2014 Massey Lectures on Citizenship. The focus of the projects ranged from ancient conceptions of membership, to contemporary multiculturalism and immigration policy. Responsibilities included research-intensive work such as literature reviews, archival research in support of radio-broadcast material and publication manuscripts of the lectures.
