

Figure 4.1: General land-cover classification process used in all three classifications. (The additional step indicated by dashed lines was only needed in the classification without ancillary data.)