

Leo Kaliazine

46 Fairholme ave., Toronto, ON, M6B 2W6

Tel. (416) 890-2752, E-mail: Leo.Kaliazine@utoronto.ca

Webpage : <http://www.individual.utoronto.ca/leok>

Education

- 2005-present Honors Bachelor of Science, University of Toronto. (Grad: May 2008)
Specialist: Computer Science Software Engineering
- 2002-2004 Electrical and Computer Engineering, University of Toronto
- 1997-2002 Forest Hill Collegiate Institute (Toronto, Ontario)
Graduated with honors (Ontario Scholar)
- Certificate: Passport to Safety Certificate

Relevant Experience

PyGraphics Project – University of Toronto – Software developer

Summer 2007

- Developed Python image manipulation library for Computer Science courses
- Created a multi-platform (Linux, OSX, Windows) installer for the library.
- Presented progress reports weekly
- Webpage: <http://code.google.com/p/pygraphics/>

CryptoLogic Inc – Q&A Tester, Project Lead back-up

Summer 2004-2006

- Coordinated Q&A side of a Casino software project
- Created and reported to management weekly status reports
- Reallocated tasks to meet all scheduled deadlines
- Performed functional and GUI testing of server and client side applications
- Created test cases, wrote testing instructions

TDSB Forest Hill Collegiate Institute – Computer Support executive member

1998-2002

- Assembled and maintained PCs (386 – Pentium 4)
- Provided Computer Support to all facilities at school
- Set up and maintained network of all computer labs in the school (Win NT)

Skills

Programming:

- Java, Python, C, Bourne Shell Script, Excel VB, C++

Leadership:

- Coordinated Q&A side of a Casino software project
- Supervised and led a group of 25 frosh students during the Orientation week
- Tutored math courses, trained new members of a Computer Science club

Communication:

- Presented weekly progress and status reports to management
- Designed and wrote testing documents

Achievements

- Developed Python image manipulation library for programming courses
- Set up and maintained network of all computer labs in a school (Win NT)
- Received Deloitte Consulting Scholarship Achievement Award
- University of Toronto Chair's Circle of Excellence Award

Other Interests

Volleyball (intramurals 1st place), Badminton (District Contest 3rd place),
Biking, Science Fiction novels

References:

Available upon request